

Masterclass Acting & Singing

Do you want to boost your musical performance skills? Improve on combining singing and acting? Would you like to finetune new audition repertoire? Then here's an unmissable opportunity for you!

This autumn, zangstudio Esther Maas presents the three-day masterclass Acting & Singing: acting coach Elisabet Sevholt and singing coach Esther Maas, each with over thirty years of experience in coaching acting and singing professionals in (musical) theatre and opera, offer a unique collaboration to help you reach your full acting potential while singing, and your full musical and vocal expression while acting in song or aria.

Elisabet Sevholt

is an acting coach dedicated to the Chubbuck Technique. She teaches workshops and classes all over Scandinavia and Northern Europe and is a private coach for many actors, singers, directors and scriptwriters. Moreover, she works as an on-set coach for film and TV. Elisabet has taught at several drama schools around the world, including Stockholm University of the Arts, The Oxford School of Drama and Lee Strasberg Theatre Institute. She has also directed more than thirty plays and musicals in Scandinavia and the UK. Elisabet studied and taught method acting at the Lee Strasberg Institute in London. In 2008, she became acquainted with the Chubbuck Technique, which summarised what she learnt during her years of working with Stanislavsky and Method Acting and on top of that, created the cutting-edge expression of acting she'd been missing. She became an officially accredited Chubbuck Technique Teacher in that same year.
